

Rosh Chodesh Sivan

All Sha'ar Zahav women are invited to usher in the new month of Sivan at a Shabbat dinner and study session on Friday, June 6 at 6:30 pm sharp in the library. We will spend time getting to know one another, eating a nice Shabbat meal and studying the Book of Ruth, which is traditionally read on Shavuot, during the month of Sivan. We will prepare ourselves for Shavuot and celebrate the voices of women in our tradition.

A vegetarian Shabbat dinner will be provided by "Home on the Range" restaurant. The cost of dinner is $7.50 a person. Advanced payment (made payable to CSZ) is required and an RSVP to Renée in the office by May 31 is necessary to attend the dinner.

Shavuot Celebration

Don't miss the opportunity to celebrate Shavuot and study Jewish texts with other members and friends of Sha'ar Zahav. On Tuesday, June 10, in celebration of Shavuot, we will hold a dairy potluck dinner, service and study session. The potluck will begin at 6:30 pm and the service will begin at 7:30 pm, with the study session immediately following the service. We will study the Book of Ruth along with other texts relevant to the holiday of Shavuot. To RSVP for the potluck or for more information, call Renée in the office.

Be Out, Loud and Proud: June Is Pride Month

The 1997 Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender Pride Parade and celebration takes place on Sunday, June 29 at 11 am and we have already begun planning for a fabulous CSZ contingent. Since the theme of this year's parade is "One Community, Many Faces," the Pride committee has decided to enlarge the CSZ contingent to be a community-wide Jewish delegation. We are inviting other synagogues and Jewish agencies to be part of our contingent with their own LGBT groups and/or as allies in the fight for LGBT equality.

Our Klezmer band, Gay iz Mir, will play on our float this year. Beth Sousa, CSZ member and professional artist, is heading up the design and decoration of the float. The Pride office has assured us that we will not be in the back of the parade this year (as we have been in the past). We need your spirit, enthusiasm and help to make San Francisco aware of the Jewish community's strength and centrality. Come out and show your pride!

Beth needs lots of help to make this year's float the best one yet. Any amount of time you can give would be most appreciated. If you want to help with planning/decoration or want to march in the parade, call Renée in the synagogue office. Also, special Jewish Pride celebration t-shirts will be available at the gift shop soon and at the CSZ booth on the day of the parade. Be sure to get yours before they are sold out.

Jews in the Mission?

by Michael Chertok

As we began to contemplate our move to a new neighborhood, whispers were heard about the area having a Jewish history. Could Mission Dolores, renowned as the first white settlement in San Francisco—of Catholic missionaries—have a Jewish history? Skepticism and curiosity initiated some digging into the Jewish past of the Mission District.

Padre Palou, a Catholic missionary, was clearly the first non-indigenous settler. He founded Mission Dolores, right across the street from the site of our new home, on October 9, 1776. Jews did not arrive in San Francisco until several years later—in the beginning of the 19th century—and then primarily settled in other areas of the city. Being Jews, they divided themselves into two separate synagogues, Temple Emanu-El and Sherith Israel. Likewise, these first San Franciscan Jews founded two separate organizations for the welfare of the Jewish community, the Hebrew Benevolent Society and the Eureka Benevolent Society. These groups were chartered to care for the Jewish poor—and to arrange for burial of the dead.

By the 1850s, an original small cemetery for Jews was no longer adequate for the city's rapidly growing Jewish population. In 1860, the Eureka Benevolent Association purchased a new burial place "for all the Israelites in California."

A parcel of undeveloped land was purchased for $4,000 in what was then apparently a rather pastoral section of the city at 18th and Dolores Streets. The area was enclosed and became known as "Home of Peace Cemetery."

For twenty-eight years, this site in Mission Dolores served as the burial grounds for Jews in San Francisco. In 1888, however, the Board of Supervisors closed the cemetery. It was relocated to Colma, where it remains to this day. The Eureka Benevolent Association, which along with other groups, continued to arrange for Jewish burials, ultimately evolved into the contemporary Jewish Family and Children's Services.

President's Column

by David Stein

Dear Diana,

Late spring at CSZ is transition time. And this year marks a presidential change as well as a change for some officers and Va'ad members. After two years of your being vice-president and my being president of our congregation, our transition will be quite a change for us both. The presidency at our congregation is now a six-year commitment: two as vp, two as president, and two as active past-president. Don't we do things in a big way at CSZ?

David Stein

In many ways the transition and its aftermath are like rafting down the Tuolumne river, hitting a hole head-on and paddling furiously to stave off misjudgments resulting from this naturally disorienting experience. As we continue gliding down a calm section of the river, we recover our equilibrium and, before looking forward to new possibilities and challenges, we look back, trying to make out the rapids and that hole from a downstream perspective. We see only the shapes of the waves marking where the rush occurred. We have memories and what we learned and try to remember how it all happened and how it worked out.

Your third year begins in July as president. As the early months go by, the fall will rush you to the High Holidays. Then, you will appear to be in firm control of the activities and issues happening and confronting our congregation. Let me tell you, that even though you will always be able to meet the rapids head on, get through them safely and recall the exhilarating experience, you should know you aren't really in control. Rather, teams of volunteers paddle with you and often give you a push into a new and perhaps better direction, sometimes in sync with you and sometimes not. They enable the congregation to grow.

All through the year we thank people who volunteer for our synagogue. Many times, as you know, the thanks-yous are big and public and prolific.

In my President's Report for the annual meeting, I named many of these people. There is also a growing number of members who make themselves available to volunteer for short-term events or to fill sudden needs. As you know, we could take the roster and pick any random 60% of the membership and most of those would be people who are at work or have completed work for the congregation. And we must never forget the partners and children of our volunteers who silently and often stoically live through the meetings and programs their partners are involved in. All are volunteer gems and they are often not public people and may not plan on being officers or Va'ad members. They do, however, decorate keter sha'ar zahav, the CSZ crown.

Sometimes, Diana, you will be charged with being president of a synagogue that is controlled by a clique, but some people are a bit mistaken. Our leadership is certainly not a small clique; it numbers about 150 now. There's the Va'ad, the officers, the past presidents, the committee chairs—that's about 40 people right there. Then there will be a group of advisors for you, many of whom won't even know they are members of your corps of advisors. Besides you, the Va'ad, the PAG and all the past presidents, some of mine were not publicly known but are people to whom I owe so much: Deborah Udin, Lyssa Friedman, Lisa Katz, Dev Felder Noily, Sandy O'Neill, Robin Leonard, Nathan Robinson, Michael Chertok, Alice Prussin, Jerry Rosenstein, Al Baum, Irene Ogus, Allan Gold, Ellie Cohen, David Gellman, Lea Salem, Sara Haber, Paul Cohen, Sharyn Saslafskey, Alex Ingersoll, Gail Friedlander, Mark Klaiman.

We have changed a lot during the past two years, Diana...you, me and especially the synagogue. We have worked out numerous new policies and ideological positions; then there is always the building project and the search for a new rabbi. Our Va'ad meetings became a forum for the discussion of hard issues, sometimes taking an inordinate amount of time. Some of our committees have changed focus and perhaps naming them might help spread the word: our Dues Committee has evolved into a group of respected Dues Counse-

Raffle Volunteers Needed

We're selling Mishkan Dolores raffle tickets on Castro Street on Sunday, June 8, Saturday, June 14 and Saturday, June 21 from 11 am to 4 pm and at the Pride celebration on June 28 and 29. Volunteer for all or part of a day. It will be a fun way to help raise funds. To volunteer, call Jeff Forman (648-0381). In addition, sell raffle tickets to your friends and family. Books of tickets are available through the office and at the gift shop.

Save the Dates: High Holidays

Since it's only June, with most of summer still ahead, it may seem a little early to be thinking of the High Holidays. This is especially the case since Erev Rosh Hashanah is not until October 1 this year, with Kol Nidre falling on Erev Shabbat, October 10. But planning for all of the services is well underway, and you will find an insert in this month's Gaily Forward asking you about the ways in which you would like to participate. Don't put it off; fill it out now, since there is so much to be done, and by all means, save the dates!

Danvers Video Tour June 22

Be a part of synagogue history on Sunday, June 22.

When we leave our building on Danvers for our new home on Dolores, we will be leaving a well-loved home filled with many memories. The Sha'ar Zahav Oral History Project wants your story, so we are doing a video tour of 220 Danvers.

We want to take the video camera around and through every corner of the synagogue to record the building and your memories of it along the way.

Do you have a special memory about our building? An amusing anecdote? This is a chance to recall and honor the life of our community with such stories.

Please call the office or Nathan Robinson (703-0747) to reserve a spot on the tour and to volunteer. We need technical and coordinating support as well as noshes for the participants. Let us know what times you are available and where in the building you would prefer to tell your story (be creative). We'll do our best to accommodate as many members as possible. See you there.

Sukkot in April a Success

We made the eleven o'clock news and the front page (in color) of the Bay Area Reporter. Besides becoming famous, 50 Sha'ar Zahav members and friends did an incredible job painting the Asian/Pacific Islander's Wellness Center on the first annual Sukkot in April day. We began the day at 8 am with Jewish readings and songs to motivate us for the day of work. By 9 am, volunteers rolled up their sleeves, picked up rollers and brushes, climbed on the scaffolding and began to paint. By the end of the day, everyone was tired but felt good about doing this mitzvah for the AIDS community.

Thanks to all of you who came out and participated. Special thanks go to Kenny Altman for his untiring efforts as volunteer coordinator for the project, to Laura Lowe for helping with volunteer recruitment, and to Steve Lowinger for his contracting skills, which assured a professional level of work. Sha'ar Zahav also thanks Shenson's Delicatessen and Restaurant for providing a delicious Passover lunch for our volunteers.

If you did not have a chance to support Sukkot in April, extra Sukkot in April t-shirts are on sale in the synagogue office for $10. Your money will go directly to the CSZ Social Action Fund.

HIV + Support Group

CSZ has ongoing support services for members living with HIV/AIDS and their families and partners on the third Saturday of every month, in addition to quarterly Shabbat dinners at the homes of members. Mark your calendars:

Saturday, June 21 at 3 pm: Support Group at CSZ, facilitated by Rob Tat.

If you have any questions or would like to put your name on our confidential mailing list, please call Amy Clark at the office (861-6932).

Join us.

Save the Date

Please save Saturday night, July 19, for the Mishkan Dolores Campaign Thank You Party and the raffle drawing. Place, details, etc. to be announced.

Talia and Ezra Barth-Rogers Bat/Bar Mitzvah

On June 14, Talia and Ezra Barth-Rogers will be called to the Torah on the occasion of their joint Bat/Bar Mitzvah. Both Talia and Ezra are 8th graders at Marin Horizon School.

Talia's favorite subjects are history and science. In addition, she has an intensive schedule of after-school gymnastics, training four hours a day, four days a week. She has enjoyed studying and working with their tutor, Ron Lezell. Becoming Bat Mitzvah means being recognized as being older and taking part in our Jewish heritage, says Talia.

Ezra enjoys math and Spanish at school, and he also enjoys after-school sports, especially soccer, basketball and capoeira, a form of martial arts from Brazil. He sees his Bar Mitzvah as a big step in life and part of growing up, but it is also meaningful to him because it signifies that he is officially a member of the congregation and will be fulfilling his obligation as a Jew.

Ezra and Talia have worked on many projects together and are sharing the Bar/Bat Mitzvah responsibilities as well. They both feel that this has made their experience less stressful than it might otherwise have been.

Mazel tov to Talia and Ezra and their family from the entire congregation.

May Va'ad Minutes

by Mike Bowers, Recorder

The Va'ad met May 12, Yom Ha'atzma'ut. Rabbi Bergadine gave the d'var torah and likened the anticipation of our new rabbi to the counting of the Omer.

Financial statements reflect an expected surplus and the Mishkan Dolores Building Fund had reached 79% of its goal at the time of the meeting. A Friday night greeting schedule was circulated.

Lea Salem presented the Administrator's report regarding a needed tree removal, and thanks were expressed to Deborah Udin for handling the issue of city-mandated repairs. Amy Clark will be acting office manager during Lea Salem's vacation, and she will be assisted by Annalisa Chasan.

Money was approved to create and maintain a CSZ web site in fiscal 1997-98 with the proviso that software licensing restrictions will be respected.

Tiela Chalmers reported on permits and loans for the purchase of the new building and a discussion followed regarding assuring ethnic and gender diversity in the contractual work.

Emma Buchbinder Bat Mitzvah

Emma Buchbinder will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on Shabbat morning, June 28. Emma is finishing 6th grade at Laurel School in San Francisco, where her favorite subjects are math and art. Outside of school, she enjoys playing soccer and basketball. Emma sees her Bat Mitzvah as a step towards growing up and "in this congregation, it means becoming more mature as an adult." The day will be even more meaningful, since Emma's grandparents will be travelling here from Washington and celebrating their 45th anniversary on that day. Emma says that her tutor, Ruthy Talansky, has been a fun person with whom to study and learn Torah. Mazel tov from the congregation to Emma, her mothers, Diana Buchbinder and Joyce Garay, and her brother Aaron.

18/10 Video at Lesbian and Gay Film Festival

The video produced for CSZ's 18/10 Celebration has been selected for presentation in the San Francisco International Lesbian & Gay Film Festival as part of the Festival's "Homo Chutzpah" program, co-presented by Sha'ar Zahav, on Saturday June 28, at 2:30 pm at the Victoria Theater.

This uniquely moving, 14 minute video portrait of CSZ was created especially for the 18/10 Celebration party two years ago. It was produced entirely from interviews done with CSZ members, which were shaped into a finished program by Michal Goralsky, Robert Tat, Michael Chertok and Lawrence Helman.

lors for new and continuing members with questions and conflicts. Our Membership Committee is actively involved in Member Relations, welcoming new members and seeking to involve them and our seasoned members in the work of our congregation; children's educational concerns, which used to be the purview of many ad-hoc committees, is now primarily the focus of the Children's Education Board, a change with which you, Diana, along with Ron Lezell, were intimately involved. Our find-your-own-way to Judaism methods have now been organized into our Jews by Choice Outreach, with programs and discussion groups, in addition to a step-by-step program for conversion. More and more people are interested in joining the program, thanks in no small measure to Paul Cohen. Read-your-own-Torah has evolved into regular adult Torah Study Classes. Twenty years of various women's activities are now focused in part on our new Rosh Chodesh Group; Social Action is involved in long-term activities and short-term rapid response to issues involving research, resolutions, action, petitions, marching and building coalitions with other like-minded religious and civic groups. ARZA has become the focus of our support for Israel. Our Israel Chavurah and interest group should really be called CSZ/ARZA.

When I took the Torah from Tiela at our installation two years ago, I could not imagine matching her energy and activities. So I want you to know that there are still a few things for you to do. For one thing, you get to move the synagogue into a new building, no small task. And you get to lead the tearful, excited procession when we march our Torah into our new mishkan, affix the mezzuzot to the doors and consecrate our new home. You will also be the primary guide for our new rabbi: your perception, many years of membership, kindness and stability will serve you and her in good stead. You also get to tackle the issues of growth in membership, maturing members, and how to implement a program of asking new members to make a significant building pledge as each of us has done already for Mishkan Dolores.

On the education front, Kadimah will probably grow two-fold during your tenure and you will no doubt hear my voice in the chorus calling for weekly adult Shabbat Talmud-Torah classes and for after kabbalat shabbat discussions on the order of "I have a question for the Rabbi: yesh-li she'elah."

Both of us share deeply the convictions expressed in the foundation stones of the Synagogue 2000 program which projects the role of the synagogue into the next century as a place for spiritual, educational and social service/tikkun olam. As we enter the new century, these are not just ideals and goals: they are imperatives. Our congregation must be the enabling midwife for its members, helping them explore, grow and enrich their lives Jewishly. As you take steps to continue our unique CSZ realization of this program, may you be blessed with wise advisors and willing volunteers by the scores. Your officers are willing and able ones, your Va'ad serious, devoted and dedicated. I will be there to volunteer and to advise as needed, as the past presidents of our congregation have done for 20 years.

With love,
David

Mission

The record also shows that there was a small community of Orthodox Jews living in the Mission. Apparently connected to the presence of the cemetery, the congregation built a synagogue called B'nai David, located on 19th Street, between Guerrero and Valencia, and a small neighborhood of Jewish shops emerged on this 19th Street corridor.

In fact, the B'nai David building was briefly considered as a first home for Sha'ar Zahav in 1979. As our congregation moved among temporary locations in our first years, we found sanctuary in another place in the Mission as well: Dovre Hall, which later became the Women's Building, housed Sha'ar Zahav services. This is where the community gathered when Harvey Milk was assassinated. Our new home in the Mission Dolores neighborhood connects us both to the legacy of San Francisco's rich Jewish past—and to our own history as a congregation.

 Every dollar counts! Thanks again for helping us reach our $1.3 million goal!

BUILDING PROJECT CLEARS MORE HURDLES!!

Exciting Developments: Our efforts to complete the purchase of 290 Dolores as our new home made several enormous strides this month.

- First, the appraisal required by the bank for our loan came out fine and the loan is ready to go!
- Second, the Jewish Community Federation voted to extend us a low-interest loan! As you probably remember, the loans are needed to pay for renovation and related costs this year. They will be repaid as MISHKAN DOLORES pledges are paid off over the next 5 years.
- And finally, the San Francisco Planning Commission voted to approve our application for a Conditional Use Permit, allowing us to use the building as a synagogue! The Zoning Administrator also approved our variance requests, allowing us to build our pitched roof and the “bay window” that will house our ark.

Scheduling: Obtaining the Conditional Use Permit was the last contingency in our contract to purchase the building. Now that it has been approved, we could close as early as mid-June. The seller has a relatively short time after closing in which to roll the money he gets from us into another property (to avoid a very large tax consequence). This means he may extend closing for up to several months, if he wishes, making our actual close date uncertain at this time. As you know, we will be leasing back the Danvers Street building for 4 months from its new owners, after which we will probably need to rent and borrow space until construction is completed. Our general sense is that we will move into the new building in early 1998.

Fundraising: Fundraising efforts continue unabated. As you can see from the “mishkanmeter” in the oneg room and the enclosed listing, we are nearing our goal but still need to bring in that last $235,000 in pledges! Besides making your pledge, returning the pledge form to the office and starting to make payments (if you haven’t already), you can also help by selling those fabulous raffle tickets you received in the mail. Raffle tickets are a great way to encourage participation by friends, family and co-workers who might not feel connected enough to make a contribution to the campaign but certainly would like that creampuff Mercedes! We will be selling the tickets in the Castro, and at the Pride Parade and related events. If you would like to help, please call the office. (This is a great way to meet a lot of people, many of them scantily clad. Enough said.)

Upcoming events: On Saturday, July 19 at 10 p.m. at the Castro Theater is the premiere screening of Trailers, Schmailers, a collection of trailers that offers a review of the history of Jews in mainstream American cinema. Created by Jenni Olson (partner of our member, Julie Dorf), the screening will be a benefit for the Mishkan Dolores campaign. We are very grateful to Jenni, as well as the Jewish Film Festival, for generously offering us this opportunity. We will be hosting a special reception with the filmmaker at 8 PM at CSZ before the show (see other side of this page).

Finally, don’t miss the Congregational Meeting on Sunday, June 15 - amongst many other exciting things, we will be reviewing the renovations budget, showing off the model and drawings, and giving an up-to-date report! See you there.

As always, if you have questions or concerns, or you’d like to help with anything from painting to moving to putting on the parties, call Tiela at (415) 431-4312.

We’d love to work with you!

Benefit Reception/Showing with the filmmaker for MISHKAN DOLORES

Trailers, Schmailers

World Premiere

From the Marx Brothers to Schindler's List and everything in between, Trailers, Schmailers offers a compact glimpse of the history of Jews in mainstream American cinema.

Original coming attraction trailers provide unique insight into the relationship between Hollywood studio's marketing departments and the growing visibility of Jews in American life.

Skillfully compiled by Jenni Olson, who has made a specialty of curating coming attractions, Trailers, Schmailers mixes humor and powerful drama with acute social commentary.

Meet the filmmaker,
hear about the film, schmooze and support
